

Welcome to Lakeview Heights!

At Lakeview Heights Baptist Church, we believe that all people matter to God. Wherever you are on your spiritual journey, know that you are welcome here. We hope that you will sense the love of God in this place and in the people who call this their church home.

Today's Celebration Service is intended to provide an opportunity to celebrate who God is and to hear how the truth of His Word applies to our everyday lives. Thank you for being our guest. We hope you enjoy your time with us and sense God's presence as you worship Him. To help us serve you, please fill out the Welcome Card located in the chair pocket in front of you and place it in the offering plate. Thanks again for joining us. God bless you!

Today at Lakeview

Everyone must submit himself to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except that which God has established. The authorities that exist have been established by God.

MISSIONARY OF THE WEEK - Brandon and Marci Jones, NAB Missionaries, Brazil. Brandon and Marci knew God wanted them to be missionaries, but it wasn't until 2015 that God directed them to Brazil. Once they have completed fundraising, they will be joining Lyndell Campbell-Réquia at the seminary in Rio Grande do Sul, which they hope to do by October. They just completed COMPASS training to help the whole family prepare for living in a different culture, and they are looking forward to August and September when they will visit Marci's parents in Kenya, where they are missionaries; this will be the first time Marci has been back in 18 years and the first time the rest of the family will see where Marci grew up. Pray for their ongoing fundraising and for their upcoming travels to Kenya. Bible Reading

1 Peter 2

¹¹Dear friends, I urge you, as aliens and strangers in the world, to abstain from sinful desires, which war against your soul. ¹²Live such good lives among the pagans that, though they accuse you of doing wrong, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day he visits us.

¹³Submit yourselves for the Lord's sake to every authority instituted among men: whether to the king, as the supreme authority, ¹⁴or to governors, who are sent by him to punish those who do wrong and to commend those who do right. ¹⁵For it is God's will that by doing good you should silence the ignorant talk of foolish men. ¹⁶Live as free men, but do not use your freedom as a cover-up for evil; live as servants of God. ¹⁷Show proper respect to everyone: Love the brotherhood of believers, fear God, honor the king. ¹⁸Slaves, submit yourselves to your masters with all respect, not only to those who are good and considerate, but also to those who are harsh. ¹⁹For it is commendable if a man bears up under the pain of unjust suffering because he is conscious of God. ²⁰But how is it to your credit if you receive a beating for doing wrong and endure it? But if you suffer for doing good and you endure it, this is commendable before God. ²¹To this you were called, because Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in his steps. ²²"He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth." ²³When they hurled their insults at him, he did not retaliate; when he suffered, he made no threats. Instead, he entrusted himself to him who judges justly. ²⁴He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed. ²⁵For you were like sheep going astray, but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.
